

At the gates of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic event, the services entuMovil, of the Havana Division, Desoft, and Cubadebate summon mobile phone users in Cuba to participate in the “Sports Party: Cubadebate entuMóvil” contest.

The contest consists of the following and only question. In which Olympic Games did Cuba obtain the most gold medals?

a: Barcelona 1992;

b: Sydney 2000;

c: Athens 2004.

To participate, those interested should send an SMS to 8888 with the text EVENTO CUBADEBATE followed by the letter that precedes the option they consider to be the correct answer.

Example: CUBADEBATE EVENT a

2 Grand Prizes will be awarded consisting of recharges of $ 125 CUP and 3 more prizes referring to free subscriptions for one month to the service of press headlines of the Cubadebate Portal.

EntuMovil Contest: In which Olympic Games did Cuba obtain the most gold medals?

Last Updated: Thursday, 08 July 2021 09:57

Hits: 490

The 5 winners will be chosen by automatic draw among all the participants who get the correct answer. The Grand Prizes will correspond to the first 2 of the 5 winners in correspondence with the date of participation.

The results will be announced on Monday, July 19, 2021, and the victorious contestants will receive notification via SMS.

For more information, we recommend mobile phone users to access the sites <https://www.entumovil.cu> and <https://www.Cubadebate.cu>

Likewise, through the pages and accounts of entumovil and Cubadebate on the social networks Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

As well as sending a free SMS to 8000 with the text HELP CUBADEBATE

And to clarify doubts: 7 835 6391

To keep abreast of the present and other participatory events that we will promote soon: send SMS (free) to 8000 with the text INFOMOVIL.

CUBADEBATE